

Francis G. Whelbyne

Sir,

as a taxpayer to the state for the past fifty five (55) years, I consider myself a owner of all state assets.

These assets are not the property of the government of the day, they belong to the people of the State.

I object to any Review group or Government of the day selling any of our state assets without the consent of the "People"

Francis G. Whelbyne